Green space encourages physical activity, social connection, and improves mental health. Green infrastructure, like gardens, roadside plantings, and vegetated rooftops, protects us from heat and storm related flooding, which can put our physical safety at risk.

ACTION!

What can I do?

Create green spaces around your home, office, or community by planting trees, shrubs, and other plants. Support the efforts of others in your community to do the same.